Wymondley JMI School Equality Policy

Introduction

Wymondley JMI School is an inclusive school where we focus on the well-being and progress of every child and where all members of our community are of equal worth.

We believe that the Equality Act provides a framework to support our commitment to valuing diversity, tackling discrimination, promoting equality and fostering good relationships between people. It also ensures that we continue to tackle issues of disadvantage and underachievement of different groups.

We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

Our approach to equality is based on the following 7 key principles:

1. All learners are of equal value. Whether or not they are disabled, whatever their ethnicity, culture, national origin or national status, whatever their gender and gender identity, whatever their religious or non-religious affiliation or faith background and whatever their sexual orientation.
2. We recognise, respect and value difference and understand that diversity is a strength. We take account of differences and strive to remove barriers and disadvantages which people may face, in relation to disability, ethnicity, gender, religion, belief or faith and sexual orientation. We believe that diversity is a strength, which should be respected and celebrated by all those who learn, teach and visit here.
3. We foster positive attitudes and relationships. We actively promote positive attitudes and mutual respect between groups and communities different from each other.
4. We foster a shared sense of cohesion and belonging. We want all members of our school community to feel a sense of belonging within the school and wider community and to feel that they are respected and able to participate fully in school life.
5. We observe good equalities practice for our staff. We ensure that policies and procedures benefit all employees and potential employees in all aspects of their work, including in recruitment and promotion, and in continuing professional development
6. We have the highest expectations of all our children. We expect that all pupils can make good progress and achieve to their highest potential
7. We work to raise standards for all pupils, but especially for the most vulnerable. We believe that improving the quality of education for the most vulnerable groups of pupils raises standards across the whole school.

Purpose of this policy

As a school we welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. The Equality Act 2010 was introduced to ensure protection from discrimination, harassment and victimisation on the grounds of specific characteristics (referred to as protected characteristics). This means that schools cannot discriminate against pupils/staff or treat them less favourably because of their sex (gender), race, disability, religion or belief, gender reassignment, sexual orientation or pregnancy or maternity.

Age, marriage and civil partnership are also “protected characteristics” but are not part of the school provisions related to pupils.

We understand the principle of the Act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity.

The Act requires all public organisations, including schools to comply with the Public Sector Equality Duty and two specific duties.

The Public Sector Equality Duty

This requires all public organisations, including schools, to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- Advance equality of opportunity between different groups
- Foster good relations between different groups

Two specific duties

This requires all public organisations, including schools, to:

- Publish information to show compliance with the Equality Duty by April 6th 2012
- Publish Equality objectives at least every 4 years which are specific and measurable by April 6th 2012.

This policy describes how the school is meeting these statutory duties and is in line with national guidance. It includes information about how the school is complying with the Public Sector Equality Duty and also provides guidance to staff and outside visitors about our approach to promoting equality.

Appendix 1 is a checklist of key equality considerations for staff and governors.

To do this, we will collect data related to the protected characteristics above and analyse this data to determine our focus for our equality objectives. The data will be assessed across our core provisions as a school. This will include the following functions:

- Admissions
- Attendance
- Attainment
- Exclusions
- Prejudice related incidents

Our objectives will detail how we will ensure equality is applied to the services listed above. However, where we find evidence that other functions have a significant impact on any particular group we will include work in this area.

Development of the policy

This policy is part of our commitment to promoting equalities and providing an inclusive school. It will be reviewed annually.

When developing the policy we took account of the DfE guidance on the Equality Act 2010, the Ofsted inspection framework and the SEND Code of Practice, which places a strong focus on improving the learning and progress of different groups and on closing gaps in standards.

We note that Ofsted has a statutory duty to report on the outcomes and provision for pupils who are disabled and those who have special educational needs.

Although this policy is the key document for information about our approach to equalities in line with the Public Sector Equality Duty, we ensure that information about our responsibilities under the Equality Act are also included in our school development plan, school website and newsletters, as well as many school policies including the school behaviour and SEND policies.

The Equality Act also applies to schools in their role as employers.

What we are doing to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation

- We take account of equality issues in relation to admissions and exclusions; the way we provide education for our pupils and the way we provide access for pupils to facilities and services;
- We are aware of the Reasonable Adjustment duty for disabled pupils – designed to enhance access and participation to the level of non-disabled pupils and stop disabled children being placed at a disadvantage compared to their non-disabled peers;
- The Headteacher ensures that all appointment panels give due regard to this policy so that no one is discriminated against when it comes to employment, promotion or training opportunities;
- We ensure that those who are affected by a policy or activity are consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones;
- We take seriously the need to consider the equality implications when we develop, adapt and review any policy or procedure and whenever we make significant decisions about the day to day life of the school;
- We actively promote equality and diversity through the curriculum and by creating an environment which champions respect for all;
- We put the rights of the child at the heart of all our decision making and put a great emphasis on respecting the views and beliefs of others;
- Our admissions arrangements are fair and transparent: we do not discriminate against prospective pupils by treating them less favourably on the grounds of their sex, race, disability, religion or belief.

Behaviour, Exclusions and Attendance

The school policy and procedures on behaviour takes full account of the new duties under the Equality Act. We make reasonable, appropriate and flexible adjustments for pupils with a disability. We closely monitor data on exclusions and absence from school for evidence of over- representation of different groups and take action promptly to address concerns.

Attendance is monitored weekly and specific groups and individuals are tracked if there is a cause for concern or a pattern emerging.

We challenge all forms of prejudice and prejudice-based bullying, which stand in the way of fulfilling our commitment to inclusion and equality. These will be tackled through assemblies, class circle time, as well as in response to specific incidents.

We review incidents termly to observe patterns in any prejudice and would then take action to reduce incidents.

What we are doing to advance equality of opportunity between different groups

- We know the needs of our school population very well and collect and analyse data in order to inform our planning and identify targets to achieve improvements;
- We have procedures, working in partnership with parents and carers, to identify children who have additional needs;
- We collect data and monitor progress and outcomes of different groups of pupils and use this data to support school improvement. We take action to close any gaps, for example, for those making slow progress in acquiring age-appropriate English and Maths skills;
- We collect and analyse data on a termly basis relating to standards reached by different year groups.

This data is shared with staff and anonymised versions at full governing body meetings. We are aware that the legislation relates mainly to current but also to future pupils.

We avoid language that runs the risk of placing a ceiling on any pupils' achievement or that seeks to define their potential as learners, such as "less able". We are committed to the concept of growth mindsets. We use a range of teaching strategies that ensures we meet the needs of all pupils. We provide effective support to pupils at risk of underachieving through the use of our pupil premium budget.

We are alert and proactive about the potentially damaging impact of negative language in matters such as race, gender, disability and sexuality.

We ensure equality of access for all pupils to a broad and balanced curriculum, removing barriers to participation where necessary. We work hard to make sure everyone has access to extra opportunities through ensuring a range of sporting and arts events with different (or no) selection procedures.

We have an Accessibility Plan designed to increase the extent to which pupils with disabilities can participate in the curriculum; improve the physical environment and; improve the availability of accessible information to disabled pupils.

We will take positive and proportionate action to address the disadvantage faced by particular groups of pupils with particular protected characteristics, such as targeted support.

What we are doing to foster good relations and community cohesion

- We welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion. We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.
- Fostering positive and constructive relationships in school, in the community and globally, is at the heart of all that we do. From collecting for the local food bank at Harvest time to performing for community members, we work to include our communities
- We prepare our pupils for life in a diverse society and ensure that there are activities across the curriculum and in school life that promote the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of all our pupils

- We teach about difference and diversity and the impact of stereotyping, prejudice and discrimination through PSHE and citizenship and across the curriculum
- We use materials and resources that reflect the diversity of the school, population and local community in terms of race, gender, sexual identity and disability, avoiding stereotyping
- We promote a whole school ethos and values that challenge prejudice-based discriminatory language, attitudes and behaviour
- We provide opportunities for pupils to appreciate their own culture and celebrate the diversity of other cultures through books in our library, through class based sessions and through whole school assemblies
- We provide opportunities for pupils to listen to a range of opinions and empathise with different experiences
- We promote positive messages about equality and diversity through displays, assemblies, visitors and whole school events
- We are committed to ensuring that no child is excluded from extra-curricular experiences, trips or residential

In order to ensure that the work we are doing on equalities meets the needs of the whole school community we gather feedback through:

- Relevant feedback from Parent Questionnaire, Parents' Evening, parent feedback from all events involving parental involvement throughout the year
- Responses from staff meetings and training events
- Review feedback and responses from the children and groups of children, from the Rights Respecting Committee, PSHE lessons and whole school surveys
- Ensure that we secure responses and feedback at governing body meetings and from the governing body sub-committee groups, where relevant

How we address Prejudice Related Incidents

This school is opposed to all forms of prejudice and we recognise that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice related discrimination may fare less well in the education system. We provide both our pupils and staff with an awareness of the impact of prejudice in order to prevent any incidents. Incidents are recorded in CPOMs and monitored and reported to governors termly.

Publishing Equality Objectives

The objectives which we identify represent our school's priorities and are the outcome of a careful review of and analysis of data and other evidence. They also take into account national and local priorities and issues.

Monitor and Review

This policy and its objectives will be reviewed annually. Every three years, we will review our objectives in relation to any changes or emerging needs in our school profile.
